Books by the Beach

Books By The Beach are delighted to be celebrating their third Scarborough book festival. The town is famous for literary connections and this year we celebrate all things Charlotte Brontë.

There's theatre at the town hall and the prison with worldwide favourite Sherlock Holmes and a tombstone trail around the cemetery...take part if you dare! Biographers, crime authors and psychological thriller writers interact with politicians and poets. Secrets are shared with espionage experts and unearthed with celebrity archaeologists.

Foodie events abound with two festival dinners, a Tudor literary lunch at Wykeham Abbey kitchen and a Wold Top Brewery beer tasting with Greensmith & Thackwray nibbles. Cheers!

We're inspired by nature, perfume and apple growing. From mindfulness to modern day heroes – something for everyone. Children's activities and community projects feature this year and we've introduced Books by the Beach for Nippers!

A BIG THANK YOU to all our visiting authors, sponsors, partners, volunteers, and of course you the audience for the continuing support and belief. Quite simply, we couldn't do it without you! Enjoy the festival!

WED 13 APRIL

PAUL HANNAM

The Wisdom Of Groundhog Day

TIME 10am

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

In thirty years of teaching and writing about personal development Paul Hannam has concluded, in his new work, The Wisdom of Groundhog Day, that the secret of a happy and fulfilling life lies in the classic 1993 Bill Murray movie. No, not by watching it again and again – although he has – but by seeing the film as a parable for changing your own life.

This morning he will explain how you can turn every day into the best day of your life.

(Tonight at 5.15 pm you can watch the film at a special Scarborough Film Society screening.)

WED 13 APRIL

ALISON WEIR

Tudor Lunch

TIME 12noon (Please be seated by 11.45am)

PRICE £25.00

VENUE The Old Kitchen, Wykeham Abbey, Wykeham, Scarborough. Parking available at venue (This venue does not have wheelchair access.)

RUNNING TIME 2.5 hours

Alison Weir is the top-selling female historian in the UK and has sold over 2.7 million books worldwide. She has published seventeen history books and five historical novels. She is soon to publish Katherine Of Aragon: The True Queen, the first in a series of novels about the wives of Henry VIII. Today Alison will be discussing The Lost Tudor Princess her latest biography over an authentic Tudor lunch in a unique setting.

This event includes a two-course lunch with tea/coffee. Wine and beer available to purchase at the bar.

WED 13 APRIL

Earlier today Paul Hannam, personal development trainer, shares the moral of the tale and how to make the most of life's opportunities.

WED 13 APRIL

SHERLOCK HOLMES FESTIVAL DINNER*with David Stuart DaviesTIME 7.30pm Bar opens 7pm

(Please be seated by 7.15pm)

PRICE £27.50VENUE Scarborough Town HallRUNNING TIME 2.5 hours

David Stuart Davies, the world's leading authority on all things Sherlockian, premiered his play, The Game's Afoot!, at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Tonight he is presenting this entertaining 'Encounter with Sherlock Holmes and Arthur Conan Doyle' in the theatrical atmosphere of the Victorian Town Hall. Of course, if you want to dress as any character from Sherlock Holmes that would add to the fun – although Moriarty isn't known to be a barrel of laughs and Mrs Hudson might get stuck with the washing up... This event includes a three-course dinner with tea/coffee.

THU 14 APRIL

HARRY PARKER

Anatomy Of A Soldier

TIME 10am

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Harry Parker joined the British Army when he was 23 and served in Iraq and Afghanistan. In 2009 he was injured whilst on foot patrol in Afghanistan when he stepped on a bomb. Harry studied Art before joining the Army and turned to writing after his injury.

Not wanting to be defined by his injuries Harry avoided a memoir, but created instead a novel - one of conflict, community and catastrophe told uniquely through 45 objects. A topical, powerful and hopeful debut!

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL EVENT

The Poetry of Philip Gross

TIME 7.30pm

PRICE Donation on the door for Amnesty International

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Philip Gross is one of the country's leading poets, whose collections weave enquiring questions in with deep feeling and a vivid sense of place. Water is his element: his T S Eliot-Prize-winning collection The Water Table was a meditation on the great Severn Estuary.

His latest book, Love Songs Of Carbon is a Poetry Book Society recommendation.

FRI 15 APRIL

FIONA BARTON & JANET ELLIS

Murder Most Foul!

TIME 11am

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Two debut crime authors, who turned to writing best-selling fiction after successful first careers, compare notes. Award-winning former journalist Fiona Barton went on to volunteer in Sri Lanka. Then she trained exiled journalists before the 'worm' of the novel that had long 'infected' her became her fictional work, 'The Widow'.

Actress and former Blue Peter presenter, Janet Ellis, seen recently on TV with her daughter, singer Sophie Ellis-Bextor, decided in 2014 to fulfil a long-held ambition to write fiction. The result is 'The Butcher's Hook', published this February.

FRI 15 APRIL

JOAN BAKEWELL

Stop The Clocks!

TIME 1pm

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Baroness Joan Bakewell is one of our best-loved broadcasters and public figures. Joan has led a varied, sometimes breathless life: she has been a teacher, copywriter, studio manager, broadcaster, journalist, the government's Voice of Older People and is now a Labour peer. She has written four radio plays, two novels and an autobiography.

In Stop The Clocks, she muses on all she has lived through, how the world has changed and considers the things and values she will be leaving behind. It's a thoughtful, moving and spirited book but we'd expect nothing less from this extraordinary woman.

FRI 15 APRIL

SIMON ARMITAGE

Walking Away

TIME 3pm

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Simon Armitage CBE is professor of poetry at the University of Sheffield and the elected Professor of Poetry at Oxford University.

Recipient of numerous prizes and awards, he has published eleven collections of poetry including his acclaimed translation of Sir Gawain and the Green Knight. But he is also a playwright, a TV and radio writer and the author of three non-fiction bestsellers.

Today he is primarily talking about his travels on foot recounted in his 'Walking Away'.

FRI 15 APRIL

ALICE ROBERTS

The Celts

Sponsored by Scarborough Archaeological and Historical Society.

TIME 5.30pm

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

Since then he has become a leading figure in broadcasting producing and presenting a large number of award-winning arts television and radio programmes across the cultural spectrum.

He has written several screenplays, twenty one novels and been long listed three times for the Man Booker prize. It's been twelve years since he wrote his last historical novel and Now Is The Time, a powerful retelling of The Peasants' Revolt is keenly awaited. A festival highlight!

SAT 16 APRIL

TRACY CHEVALIER & CLAIRE HARMAN

The World Of Charlotte Brontë

Sponsored by The Royal Literary Fund

TIME 10am

PRICE £7.00

Royal Literary Fund

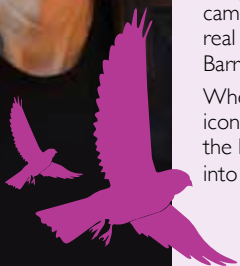

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Bestselling novelist Tracy Chevalier has a lifetime love of Charlotte's work and is curator of the 2016 celebratory exhibitions at Haworth Parsonage. Tracy also edited Reader I Married Him, an anthology by today's finest women writers, inspired by Jane Eyre.

Claire Harman is a renowned biographer. Her latest book is Charlotte Brontë: A Life. Claire will discuss Charlotte's literary reputation and how she coped with the pressures of London and the famous literary figures of the day.

SAT 16 APRIL

RICHARD HINES

How Kes, My Kestrel Changed My Life

TIME 1pm

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

In his riveting memoir, Richard Hines, BBC documentary filmmaker recalls growing up in a South Yorkshire mining village, and his struggle to find his place in life. His salvation came in his love of falconry. Richard was the real life character who inspired his brother Barry's classic novel A Kestrel For A Knave.

When production began on Ken Loach's iconic film Kes, Richard found himself training the kestrels that would soar on screen and into cinematic history.

SAT 16 APRIL

TRACY CHEVALIER

At The Edge Of The Orchard

TIME 3pm

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Tracy Chevalier is the author of seven previous novels, including the international bestseller Girl With A Pearl Earring. To date it has sold almost four million copies globally.

This afternoon Tracy talks about and reads from At The Edge Of The Orchard featuring the Goodenough family who plant apple trees in the Black Swamp to claim the land.

In this rich, brutal story Tracy evokes the futility of struggle to escape our roots, no matter how hard we try.

TIME 10am

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Vince Cable, politician and economist may be searching for financial headlines... Franny Moyle, Theatre director and Art biographer could turn to the cultural sections... or both may target the lighter side of the news.

Peter Guttridge, crime writer and festival co-director will chair and help them discover the news 'nuggets'.

Listen to what's hot from the press and chance to have your say too!

SUN 17 APRIL

ADAM SISMAN & ANDREW LOWNIE

The Spying Game

TIME 1pm

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

After blocking a biography from publication in the early 1990s, John le Carre, at the age of 84 has co-operated with Adam Sisman to write his life story. For more than fifty years Le Carre has been a bestselling novelist with surrounding speculation about how much his own experiences feature. Adam will reveal his findings...

Guy Burgess is the most complex of the 'Cambridge Spies'. Drawing on 30 years of archives research and close connections with British and USA Intelligence, Andrew Lownie presents us with an enthralling portrait of the secret agent.

SUN 17 APRIL

FRANNY MOYLE

The Art Of Turner

TIME 1pm

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Art Gallery

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Franny Moyle is a biographer and former BBC Creative Director. Her first book Desperate Romantics: The Private Lives Of The Pre-Raphaelites was adapted into a BBC drama serial. Her second book Constance: The Tragic And Scandalous Life Of Mrs Oscar Wilde was published to critical acclaim.

Today Franny will be talking about and reading from her newly awaited biography The Extraordinary Life And Momentous Times Of J.M.W. Turner. Turner is one of our most admired yet misunderstood landscape artists. Join her for an astonishing portrait of the public painter and private man.

SUN 17 APRIL

JOANNE HARRIS & CHRISTOPHER FOWLER

Psychological Thrillers and Peculiar Crimes

TIME 3pm

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Joanne Harris is one of our best loved and most versatile novelists. She has written acclaimed novels in diverse genres including historical fiction, fantasy and psychological suspense - her latest is in a Different Class.

Christopher Fowler is the author of cult fiction, horror-pastiche and short stories. Today he'll be speaking about his award-winning Bryant and May detective series.

SUN 17 APRIL

HUGH FRASER

The Making Of An Assassin

TIME 5pm

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Scarborough Library Concert Hall

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

Aside from playing The Duke of Wellington in Sharpe, his appearances in Hollywood movies and on the West End stage, actor Hugh Fraser is probably best known as Captain Hastings opposite David Suchet in Poirot.

However, his debut novel, Harm is much harder-edged than anything Christie ever wrote as it recounts the thrilling story of a female assassin both in her present - dealing with Mexican drug cartels - and the squalid past of 1950s slum-ridden Notting Hill.

DAVID STUART DAVIES

The Game's Afoot

TIME 7pm

PRICE £10.00

VENUE Scarborough Prison, Dean Road Depot

RUNNING TIME 1 hour

David Stuart Davies, novelist, playwright and the world's leading authority on all things Sherlockian, premiered his play, The Game's Afoot! at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival last year to much acclaim. He presented his 'Encounter with Sherlock Holmes and Arthur Conan Doyle' on the first evening of Books By The Beach in Scarborough's atmospheric Town Hall.

Tonight he presents the unexpurgated version in the even more atmospheric surroundings of Scarborough's Victorian prison.

Warning: dress warmly – and not just because David's performance will give you the chills! This venue does not have disabled access.

GLADSTONE ROAD PRIMARY SCHOOL COMMUNITY PROJECT...

Books by the Beach have been working with Gladstone Road Primary School to produce community project DIG READING! Every pupil in the school (over 800...!) is taking part in this March event which moves storytelling out of the school walls and into gardens and outdoor spaces.

There's a mix of art, music, drama and writing using stories as stimulus. The children's classic The Secret Garden features as a 'Big Read.' The fun starts on World Book Day, 3rd March when the children will be served a book themed lunch.

On Friday 11th March at 2pm a Scarborough live poetry record will be attempted at the railway station - on the world's longest railway bench led by Craig Bradley, Yorkshire performance poet.

Thanks to Scarborough Studios Ltd for use of the Old Parcel Office during the project and to First Transpennine Express for their kind co-operation. Thanks also to the teachers and school helpers with special mention to Lesley Dodd, co-ordinator of DIG READING!

This event is sponsored by Gladstone Road Primary School.

ENID BLYTON

TRAIL

29 MARCH - 8 APRIL

Be a Blyton treasure hunter and have chance to enter the prize draw!

This year in an exciting partnership with Scarborough Museum's Trust and Scarborough Library we are running a children's Enid Blyton Trail.

An amazing Enid Blyton exhibition will be launched on Saturday 26th March at Scarborough Art Gallery. A must-see visit for Blyton fans of all ages! To coincide with this, Books by the Beach are running a 500 word story competition based on the following title:

'Five go on holiday to Scarborough'

If you enjoy Enid Blyton's Famous Five stories you'll love this opportunity to write one yourself. Invent new characters, create an exciting adventure and let your imagination flow...

Story entry forms will be available at Scarborough library and the competition is open to all children aged 7 – 13 years. Closing date is Friday 8th April. A selection of the stories will be on display in the Sitwell Library at Woodend from 13 – 16 April. There will be a prize of book vouchers for the winning entry.

Scarborough Library are joining us in this Enid Blyton project by organising a BLYTON BIG READ.

To take part just join the library (it's free to join!) and borrow an Enid Blyton book to read. There's lots to choose from!

So where do I start?

It's easy! Just pick up your bookmark from the library and collect stickers as you take part in each activity. Get your final sticker when you show your completed bookmark at the gallery. Then register your name for the chance to win brilliant Blyton goodies in a prize draw.

Happy Hunting

SAT 16 & SUN 17 APRIL

WARTIME LIES

At the Cemetery

TIME The narration will begin on the hour, every hour, between 10am & 3pm. Audience size is limited to 10 per narration so tickets MUST be purchased in advance for a specific time.

PRICE £7.00

VENUE Dean Road Cemetery (starting point The Dead House)

RUNNING TIME Approximately 30 mins

Dean Road cemetery has the graves of military men from almost two centuries of war: from the charge of the Light Brigade during the Crimean War through the Afghan and Zulu and Boer Wars to the Great War. But one of them contains a mystery and a murderer who got away with a terrible crime on the home front.

Follow this person's trail from tombstone to tombstone, as the tale unfolds on your headset narrated by actress Greta Scacchi (recently seen on TV in 'War and Peace') and John Benfield (A.D. and last year's Scarborough prison event, 'Jack The Ripper').

Wartime Lies is conceived and written by crime-writer and festival co-director Peter Guttridge
